

REMARKS

This Amendment is filed in response to the Office Action mailed May 3, 2006. All objections and rejections are respectfully traversed.

Claims 1-44 are now pending in the case.

Claims 1-44 have been amended to better claim the invention.

Claims 47-48 have been added. Such claims are computer readable media claims which relate to the system and method claims already present in this case.

Request for Interview if Outstanding Issues

If the Examiner believes the case is not yet in condition for allowance, the Applicant respectfully requests an Interview to advance the prosecution of this case. The Applicant believes any minor remaining issues may best be addressed by personal contact and possibly an Examiner Amendment. The Applicant respectfully requests the Examiner contact the Applicant at 617-951-2500.

Objection to the Specification

At paragraph 1 of the Office Action, various typographical errors were objected to in the Specification. The Applicant has made appropriate correction and believes the specification is now non-objectable.

Claim Objections

At paragraph 2 of the Office Action, claims 5, 7-38, 40, and 41 were objected to as containing a variety of informalities. The Applicant has amended these claims as well as several other claims to be clearer. While in the majority of the situations the Applicant has entered changes in accord with the Examiner's suggestions, in some instances the Applicant has modified the claims slightly differently, as the Applicant saw opportunities to make the claims even clearer. The Applicant believes the Examiner will now find the claims non-objectionable.

Claim Rejections – 35 U.S.C. §101

At paragraphs 4-5 of the Office Action, claim 46 was rejected under 35 U.S.C. §101. The Applicant has cancelled claim 46 and this rejection should now be moot.

Claim Rejections – Double Patenting

At paragraphs 6-7 of the Office Action, claim 1-46 were rejected under the judicially of double patenting in relation to U.S. Patent No. 6,741,592, the parent case of this Application.

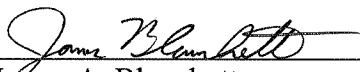

The Applicant files herewith a terminal disclaimer to overcome this rejection. Accordingly, the Applicant respectfully requests issue of a notice of allowance.

In the event that the Examiner deems personal contact desirable in disposition of this case, the Examiner is encouraged to call the undersigned attorney at (617) 951-2500.

In summary, all the independent claims are believed to be in condition for allowance and therefore all dependent claims that depend there from are believed to be in condition for allowance. The Applicant respectfully solicits favorable action.
